Summary: The Colton Police Department is pleased to announce that Bud and Dot Smith are our 2008 Citizen Volunteer's of the Year. The Smith's have been actively involved the volunteer program since 1993. In 2008 alone, the Smith's performed over 840 hours of service to the community and participated in activities ranging from issuing parking cites to assisting at the Relay for Life. They have also been instrumental in speaking at local Neighborhood Watch meetings.

Bud and Dot, long time citizens in Colton, are retired and enjoy being involved in community activities. You'll frequently find them on Saturday mornings on patrol, removing unauthorized signage and doing their best in keeping the City of Colton free from blight.

If you are a Colton Citizen who is interested in learning more about the Colton Police Citizen Volunteer Unit, please contact Sgt. Bornsheuer or Cpl. Bayer at 909-370-5000 for more information.

Must be approved by the Office of the Chief of Police prior to release
