FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Colton Police Officers Square Off with Colton High School Faculty for Charity

Date of Incident: May 29th 2009
Time of Incident: 7:00 p.m.
Location of Incident: Ken Hubbs Gymnasium / Colton High School

Summary:

On Friday May 29th, 2009, at 7:00 PM, police officers from the Colton Police Department will play against Colton High School Faculty in a Charity Basketball Game at Ken Hubbs Gymnasium. Colton High School and the Colton Police Department enjoy a great partnership within the community and one of the positive interactions between High School athletes and police officers is through the successful Cops-N-Jocks Program. The Charity Basketball Game is being sponsored in part by the Cops N Jocks Program and all proceeds from the game will go to the Colton High School Student Athlete Recognition Awards Program.

Admission to the event is $5.00 for adults, Students with School ID Card are $3.00 and Children under 12 are free. Refreshments will be available and a raffle with several prizes is scheduled for the event. Colton High School Varsity Cheer will perform routines during halftime and Colton Police Chief Bob Miller will be the official announcer for the game.

Members of the public are encouraged to come out and support their high school sports programs and athletes on May 29th, 2009, at Colton High School Ken Hubbs Gymnasium, 777 West Valley Blvd., Colton.

To find out how you can help, or for questions on this event, please contact the Colton Police Activities League (PAL) office at 909.514.1153.
