Summary: Colton Police Officers responded to a 911 follow up call to a residence in the 3000 block of Canyon Vista Drive. Once contact was made officers discovered that there were three victims of a residential robbery. Officers learned that two male suspects had entered the residence by unknown means, broke down an interior door, and confronted the victims. One victim was struck with a metal object and all the victims were tied up. Suspects took electronic equipment and money. Suspects then took one of the victim's vehicles and fled the location. The vehicle was later recovered in the city Highland. Detectives responded and are pursuing leads. Anyone with information is encouraged to contact the Colton Police Department and speak with Detective Division.
