FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“BARK IN THE PARK” Event

Date of Incident: June 27, 2009
Time of Incident: 8:00am to 3:00pm
Location of Incident: Fleming Park (100 W. F St.) Colton, CA

Summary:

The Colton Police Department’s Animal Control Division will be hosting a “Bark in the Park” event on June 27th, 2009 at Fleming Park in Colton. This fun filled community event will feature a dog show, ‘meet the breed’ expo, Police K9 demonstration, and classes on responsible pet ownership. There will be food and fun booths, ID chip services, as well as pet washing and grooming for folks who bring their pets. There will be plenty of fun activities for the kids and lots of freebies for the pets.

The Colton Police Department Animal Control Officers will be on site to provide dog licensing, as well as to provide information on its Spay/Neuter Voucher Program. All proceeds of the event go towards the Spay/Neuter Voucher Program.

Join us for a wonderful day in the park! If you’d like to be a part of this community event, contact Animal Control Officer Shari Sproal at 909-370-5019. With several major pet suppliers involved, this event promises to be a great time for pet owners in the Inland Empire.

Press- Contact Shari Sproal at 909-370-5019 for further information.
